

Calling All String Players....

Join the NEW TOHS Orchestra

- Intermediate/Advanced level*
- No marching band requirement
- Fulfills "F" fine arts requirement for UC admissions

*Not intended for beginning students. However, students with previous music experience who study a string instrument privately may be eligible.

Enjoy a break in your school day to play music with friends. Get in on the ground floor of this exciting new organization at TOHS and help establish new traditions.

More Great Reasons to play in the TOHS Orchestra:

- 1. Concerto Competition – Winner performs a movement from a concerto with the orchestra in March
- 2. Small Ensemble Opportunities for advanced players – Can lead to playing opportunities that earn community service hours or even paying gigs.
- 3. Additional Leadership Opportunities – Leadership positions (i.e., concertmaster, section leader, orchestra president) are impressive on college applications.

It's Not Too Late! Call the TOHS counseling office to sign up for this exciting elective. For more information, email Anna Sobrino at asobrino@conejo.k12.ca.us.
